Help Honor The Heroic Jewish Chaplains of World War II and Vietnam at Arlington National Cemetery

In Arlington National Cemetery stands 3 monuments to the heroic chaplains who have given their lives in time of war. They honor the Protestant chaplains who died in WW I and WW II; the Catholic chaplains who died in WW I, WW II, Korea and Vietnam but there is no monument to the 10 Jewish chaplains who died in WW II and Vietnam. The Association of Jewish Chaplains of the Armed Forces seeks to rectify this oversight by dedicating a monument in their honor. It is only fitting, and builds on the legacy of Rabbi Alexander Goode, one of the legendary Four Chaplains of World War II who gave up their lives to save other soldiers in the sinking of the USAT Dorchester.

Please help us honor their memories, and give them their rightful place among our nation's heroes.
